

Wayne Knit Hosiery

For the Whole Family

Do you realize what a difference there is between Full Fashioned and Seamless Hose? Not one in ten do.

Full Fashioned Stockings are knit the shape of the foot and leg and will always keep this shape, no matter how long worn.

Full Fashioned is to stockings what custom tailoring is to clothes.

Seamless Stockings are circular knit; that is, like a tube, without any narrowing or shaping in the leg or foot. The heel and toe are sewed up and the look they have when on the counter is given by putting them wet over boards shaped like a full fashioned stocking and pressing them. This shape they will retain until worn when, naturally, the upper part of the leg fits tight and the ankle baggy, and the foot has no form whatever.

The difference between Full Fashioned and Seamless in fit, appearance and satisfaction to the wearer is entirely one sided in favor of Full Fashioned.

Wayne Knit Hosiery for the whole family is Full Fashioned.

We venture this assertion that you will pay 38c a pair for Stockings no better than Wayne Knit at 25c—you will pay 50c a pair for Stockings no better than Wayne Knit at 38c. You better try them.

There Is a Big Difference In Tea and Coffee

Some coffee grown in Mexico, some in Porto Rico, and a great deal more in Brazil.

It doesn't make so much difference where it is grown, as how it's cultivated and what kind of coffee it makes.

The same with Tea. It doesn't have to be grown in China or Japan if the quality is there.

For example—try our 39c Ceylon.

Or the regular 40c value Green Japan Tea we are selling for 29c a pound.

"Medallion Coffee," that's all we need to say, is 35c a pound.

While indulging in a friendly scuffle with his companions at the trotting park yesterday afternoon, William Macklin of Montpelier had his left arm dislocated at the elbow. He was taken into the ladies' stand and Dr. Z. Archambault, who was on the grounds, was called and he put the member back in place.

The Montpelier school drum corps, said to be the largest in the world, paid a neighborly visit to Barre yesterday, coming in a daily decorated car over the trolley system, and tooting as they came. Under the marshaling of Supt. Browncombe they dismounted at the city square and tooted some more, much to the enjoyment of a large crowd of people.

The rubber in the vestibules between the two coaches of the Central Vermont train which left here at 4:40 yesterday afternoon caught fire and was blazing up when discovered by Conductor Kanelly. The train was stopped near Blackwell street and the blaze was quickly put out with pails of water from the engine. It is supposed that the rubber vestibules were not seriously damaged, as the fire was discovered about as soon as it started.

On account of the small crowd, as said, Wilfred Barrett of Lowell, Mass., refused to go on for the second bout after being thrown by Fritz Hanson, at the Blanchard opera house last Saturday night. It had taken Hanson 35 minutes to secure the throw, and the contest was an interesting one. When Barrett refused to continue, Referee Bourdon awarded the match to Hanson, after which Barrett said he would wrestle Hanson for $100 a side. Arrangements for the match will probably be arranged.

In addition to their other duties of the day yesterday, the Barre Citizens' band gave their first open-air concert of the season at the park stand last night, and they drew a big crowd of people, who enjoyed the varied program and occasionally gave voice to their enjoyment by applause. The work of the organization under direction of Mr. White was the subject for favorable comment all through the day. The concert last night was the first of the series of twenty to be given throughout the summer.
